Hip hip hooray the sun is back... and Happy 9th birthday to Jaxon ! 26.5.17

This will be a very short burst of news as I have been off work due to an injury and just returned. It certainly is getting warmer so please do put that sun cream on before sending to school and send a named hat in too. Quite a few school clothes that have been named are pretty tricky to read now as faded...please make sure names are clear to save us time. Thanks.

This week we welcome back Ange to our team. Now Ange is back Suzanne will go back to mornings only.

Swans class are making wellie planters for the sensory garden so if you have any old colourful wellies please send them in if you would like them to be turned into planters—Thank you.

ENJOY YOUR PLANTS COMING HOME TODAY...WILL THEY CONTINUE TO GROW??

Wows this week: Rossi for getting a symbol off the wall to let us know he was a bit hungry! Owen for counting and clearly saying "2" as well as sounds for other numbers and some clear ones like 5,6..

Next term, I would like to ask if possible that each family make a contribution of £1 per week towards snacks and cookery ingredients./café visits. I haven't asked for money for a long time as funds had built up but I do now need to ask again. If it's easier for you, you can send in one amount of £7 for the term or send in weekly £1. Please send money in an envelope labelled Penguins, class fund and name of your child please. Many thanks. By having a wide range of things available at snacktimes and in cookery we have helped children to accept new tastes, presentations and to communicate with ever improving symbol sentences.

What I have been hearing about:

FOLS are planning a coin trail during the week of 26th June...more info will follow.

FOLS are also planning a tea party during the week of 10th July again look out for more info coming soon...

12th July school reports will be sent home and I will make sure you have the IEP copies you signed too. Following this there will be the last parent's evening of the year on Tuesday 18th July by which time new classes will be organised for the next year and there will be a chance to meet new teachers if your child is moving up or if we have a new teacher for Penguins by then. Week beginning 17th July will be transition week when children move to their new classes and work together on a theme Den building??
