Hello Everyone!
 Our Christmas preparations are under way and Owls are looking forward to sharing our song with you on Tuesday at 2pm. There have been lots of practising and using the ipad to access Christmas music which has been a lot of fun! The twelve days of Christmas has been blasting out from multiple ipads over the course of this week!
 Owls break up next Wednesday at 2:30pm. I hope you all have a very happy holiday and look forward to seeing everyone on Thursday January 4th to start our new year!

Thank you everyone for your continued support.

Janine and Owls staff team.
