11/05/18

Dear Parents and Carers,

We say a fond farewell to our student teacher Sarah Shaw who finishes her placement with us. We all wish her the best for the future and Toucans class will miss her. Toucans took the role of being a Vet very seriously in role play this week. There are some great pictures.

Taking Squishy home for the weekend is William, have a great weekend, we all look forward to hearing about what has happened on Monday.

Tuesday 15th May is our parent evening we look forward to seeing you. The consultation time is 15 minutes.

You can send pictures or messages to us, here are our email addresses
