Hello Everyone
Owls have visited palmer Garden Centre this week and on Tuesday we had a fun music and literacy day. We engaged in the gingerbread man story and ofcourse tasted the gingerbreadman alongside exploring the dough and making cookies too! We also joined in the song that went alongside the story using the big mac switch. We had another story about the Wild Things! with lots of exploration too!
Owls are showing off their independence skills and operating their ipads with enthusiasm. Owls request to use their ipads too!
Don't forget
No school on Monday
Have a good weekend.
