

This week we have been looking at the artist Andy Goldsworthy. We made our own pictures using only natural resources.

On Thursday we had our Art day with Becky (resident artist). We looked at the solar system and all of the planets we then made our own papier mache planets and painted them.

