Hello!

As usual, the week has sped by – a sign, I think, of how much fun we are having!

We have been real party people this week. We had a Pirate Party on Wednesday, the Nurture Group partied on Thursday; and Roisin threw us a bit of a bash this afternoon. We have feasted like kings on Wotsits and Party Rings this week – it has been great!

Today, we also turned the Hall into a little Larkrise cinema and watched 'Turbo' – a Dreamworks Animation film all about a snail who feels the need for speed! It was very fun and there was a lot of popcorn - and even some candyfloss! A fabulous way to start the weekend,

Don't forget that on Monday we are off to Longleat! We are leaving at 9.30am and we will be back by 3pm. Please make sure that your child has the following:

- A packed lunch with enough drinks for the day
- A sun hat (just in case!)
- Waterproof coat (just in case!)

We will put sun cream on children for whom we have permission to do so. We won't be visiting any shops, so don't worry about sending in any pocket money. It will be a lovely day – we are planning on spending the morning visiting the animals in and around the Main Square – such as Koala Creek, Jungle Kingdom and the giant otters and crocodiles. We may have a little ride on the train before tucking in to our delicious packed lunches. After lunch we will head to the play park before heading home. We can't wait!

On Tuesday of next week, those Robins who are flying the nest will be in their new classes. Janette will be moving with the children going to Peacocks in order to help with the transition. Janette has been part of Robins Class for longer than I have and I am going to miss her loveliness and expertise more than I can say. Peacocks Class have absolutely won the lottery with all their fabulous new recruits this year! Don't forget that on Tuesday evening there is an opportunity to meet your child's new teacher and find out what they will be getting up to in their new class. If you haven't already booked a time, it's not too late!

Finally, we need to say Goodbye and Toodle-oo to Roisin, who has been an excellent Robin for the past few months. She is off at the end of term to start a new adventure elsewhere and we will miss her loads. We wish her love, luck and laughter as she starts her glamorous new job!

Wishing you all a wonderful weekend

Rachel ☺
