

Owls Newsletter

8/11/19

Hello Everyone, Welcome back to Owls pupils and a busy half term leading up to Christmas.
There are new tasks
to work on and activities to plan and enjoy!

Cooking this term
will be exploring a variety of scones
mixtures whilst PE
will focus on multi-skills . This week
Owls have tried
skittles and dropping
a ball onto a target .
It provoked some
lovely reactions.
Hydrotherapy sessions have taken place and been lots
of fun too!

We are hoping to do
a lunchtime out at the end of November at Toby Carvery.
We will let you know
as soon as detailed
have been confirmed.

We had a lovely Larcpac session this week with interactions developing beautifully.

On Monday we communicated choice at the café in Palmer
Garden Centre .

The lights
and music
in the pool
are great!

Staffing in Owls is a little different this half term with Amanda Smith joining Owls on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday and Tracey working elsewhere apart from Wednesday. I will keep you informed of any future changes. Owls will aim to get out into the community on Friday and Mondays if we have enough staff to do so. Have a great week end everyone!

Janine, Helen and the owls team.
