

6th December 2019

Hello!

It's beginning to feel a lot like Christmas in Robins Class! We have begun to rehearse our joint Nativity that we will perform for you on 18th December along with Wrens Class. We are very excited about it and we are having a great time singing along to all the songs!

You should all have received a letter giving you details of the performance and inviting you along to come and watch. Details about which part your child is playing will also be included. Please, please don't worry if finding a costume is tricky – just let us know as we do have some costumes in school – we just don't quite have enough to provide a costume for everyone.

We can't wait to see you on the 18th at 2pm sharp! Save the date!

Don't forget that tomorrow is Larkrise's Christmas Fayre! There will be lots of different stalls and tombolas as well as a grand raffle! I have even heard that Father Christmas is going to be there too! The fun begins at 10am and ends at 12.30pm. We really hope that you can join the jollity and maybe pick up a lovely Christmas bargain while you are at it!

Larkrise is really getting into the festive spirit – and we are being helped along by a little Elf who has come to keep an eye on us for Father Christmas! This elf is a little bit cheeky though, and he seems to get up to far more mischief than any of us ever do! You can check out his cheeky antics on the Larkrise Facebook Page!

Wishing you all a lovey weekend!

Rachel ☺
