What a week we've had!!
Two Ofsted inspectors were in on Tuesday and we were very keen to show them just how proud we are of our pupils, school and each other. Not forgetting you all as amazing parents. We have had a really good week all round and some wonderful WOW moments.

Have a lovely weekend.
