

10th March 2017

Hello!

Well, it has certainly been an eventful week! The sun seems to have come out, we have had a birthday in the class and there was a little visit from Ofsted! The inspection lasted only one day (though it felt like a lot longer!) We aren't allowed to know how we did for a couple of weeks, until the details of the report have been finalised, but Mr Cook is smiling, so I think things went ok!

Our Art Day, last Friday, was a great success. The children all had a wonderful time and we created some amazing pieces of art. If you come into school, then check out our beautiful Spring Time Tree, which is standing proudly in the Lobby, by the entrance, welcoming everyone into our lovely school.

Yesterday we celebrated Lewis' 5th birthday with a few party games and a HUGE chocolate cake!

Our little Robins always make me proud, but this week I am filled with pride as each and every one of them have achieved a little milestone or a target this week. Well Done Robins Class!

Have a wonderful weekend – let's hope the sun keeps shining!

Rachel ☺

Have a wonderful weekend!